

THUD VALLEY

The Harlson County Veterans Association after building what has become known to some as Thud Valley located at Helton Howland Park on Hwy 78 in Tallapoosa, Ga, will be working to complete the second phase of this project in the coming year with a tentative dedication date of July 4, 2019, by adding markers around the existing A/C dedicated to the men and women who flew, crewed or maintained these and or other A/C for our nation, defense department and military. the proceeds will be used for maintaining the park as well as the future construction for a military museum at the same location.
